PRINTED UPON VELLUM. A magnificent book, and in the finest preservation, bound in blue meorocco by Charles Lewis. Christophorus Plantinus excudebat Antverpiæ, MDLXIX-LXXIII.

As a specimen of printing upon vellum the present work is unrivalled. It is justly in that respect called by Calmet the Wonder of the World. This copy is mentioned by Mons. Van Praet as formerly in the possession of Chardin, and is thus described in the Bibliographical Decameron: "Language can scarcely do justice to its extraordinary beauty and perfection of condition, and one thousand guineas were asked for it." See also the Bibliotheca Sussexiana, vol. i. p. 28. The following character of Plantin is given in Le Long's Bibliotheca Sacra, "Christophori Plantini (Turonensis): "Viri de typographica arte optime meriti, summam ingenii dexteritatem, admirabilem prudentiam, sedulam operam, infinitos labores, ac denique omnibus in rebus insignem diligentiam nemo satis admirari ac dignis laudibus extollere potest."

This Bible as appears by the above Colophon, was written in the year 1148, for the Monastery of the Park, near Louvain, where it remained till recently. It is in perfect preservation, and is ornamented with many splendid and elaborate illuminations; and is mentioned by Sander as having been examined by the Deputies of the Council of Trent for the Vulgate Edition. A most curious Historical Chronicle is inserted at the beginning, in which the remarkable events of the world are brought down to the year 1310. It may certainly, as containing this Chronicle, the date of its scrip- tion, the curious illuminations, and for the importance of its text, be cited as the most valuable Latin Bible brought into this country for many years.

- 101 BIBLIA SACRA LATINA ; Vetus et Novum Testamentum com- plectens, ex versione S. Hieronymi.

* * This Manuscript is a remarkably splendid specimen of the Art of Writing and Illumination in England during the Fourteenth Century. It is written upon Vellum in double columns, and in a fine bold character, and is embellished with numerous highly finished Paintings and Borders, many of which, as in the Gothic Ornaments of the Churches, are of a very grotesque description. The Illumination prefixed to the Book of Exodus is particularly curious, bound in blue mo- rocco, 24l. - - - large folio

- 102 Biblia Sacra Latina, Vetus et Novum Testamentum, cum Prologis et Argumentis Sancti Hieronymi, Sæculi XIV.

Fine Manuscript upon Vellum, containing 830 pages in double columns. On the first page is a Miniature Portrait of St. Jerome, and in the body of the work are many co- loured Initials. At the end of the Book of Job is the date of MCCC., in the original binding, with clasps, 8l. 8s. folio

- 103 BIBLIA SACRA LATINA. Vetus et Novum Testamentum cum Apocalypsi. An elegantly written Manuscript of the Four- teenth Century upon Vellum, in double columns, and in a very minute character. It is also ornamented with nu- merous Miniatures containing the heads of the Prophets, Apostles, and grotesque borders which are highly finished in gold and colours. The present is among the prettiest specimens of a stile of writing and ornament by no means uncommon at this period, in the original binding, and in the finest preservation, 7l. 7s. - large 8vo.

- 104 Biblia Sacra et Novum Testamentum Latinum. Manuscript of the Fourteenth Century upon Vellum, ornamented with a great number of small Miniatures, in fine preservation, and bound in black morocco, 6l. 6s. - 4to.

* * This is unquestionably a Manuscript of great An- tiquity, and may probably be of the Tenth, and is certainly not later than the Eleventh Century. It is written in a fine bold Lombardic Character upon Vellum, and is ornamented with Capital Letters (several of which are in outline) in a very complicated but by no means ungraceful stile of Illumination. The Painting prefixed to Joshua, who maketh the Sun and Moon to stand still, is most interesting as shewing the probable period of the execution of this Manuscript, in fine preservation, and in the original vellum binding, with clasps, 42l. - - - large folio printed date subjoined. There is another impression of the same date and place, supposed to have been executed by Zainer, which disputes the palm of priority, but it is difficult to determine the question. It would appear from G. F. Magnus Brucker and Tentzel, that there were absolutely two editions by Sorg in this year. The latter supposes that it was owing to the small number of copies of the first edition which were struck off."—*Bibl. Quoique moins recherché, il n'en est pas resté moins rare, et sera toujours précieux comme l'une des premières éditions d'Ulric Zell. Cette Bulle fut publiée en 1463, et il est probable, que son impression fut faite de 1466 à 1467.

"Très beau Manuscrit de la fin du 15<sup>e</sup> siècle sur velin, composé de 32 feuillets et enrichi de deux riches bordures en arabesques délicatement peintes et d'un très grand nombre de lettres initiales ornées de jolies peintures rehaussées d'or ; en outre, les intitulés de chaque chapitre sont écrits en or. Ce Manuscrit a selon toute apparence été écrit par George Hermonyme lui-même, qui, au rapport de Boerner (de Doctis græcis litterar. græc. in Italia instauratoribus, p. 194) fut un très-habile calligraphe.

Les trois premiers feuillets de ce volume sont occupés par une épître dédicatoire d'Hermonyme au prince Engelbert de Cleve, comte de Nivernois, dont les armes se trouvent peintes sur le quatrième feuillet.—From D'Ourches's Library, bound in velvet, 10l. 10s. 4to.

* * This edition is generally known by the name of the Grenville Homer, the large paper copies having been printed at the expense of the late Marquess of Buckingham, Lord Grenville, and the Right Hon. T. Grenville. A very limited number of impressions were struck off which have been presented to the friends of the family. The present copy was formerly in the library of Dr. Cleaver, Bishop of St. Asaph, who was tutor to Lord Grenville. Not more than four copies have ever occurred for sale.

On the reverse is the Table with this Prologue.

"La copilacion deste Cancionero general fue hecha por Hernando de Castilla el qual siendo de su natural inclinado al metro Castellano investigo con mucha diligencia e recogio de diversas partes y de diversos auctores todas las obras que pudo hallar en metro compuestas de los auctores que en este genero de escriver tenian auctoridad dende el tiempo de Juan de Mena hasta su tiempo. Y despues desta copilacion se hizo una adicion en la segunda impression de muchas cosas buenas y nuevas. E finalmente agora en esta ultima impression se han quitado del dicho Cancionero algunas obras que eran muy desonestas y torpes e se han annadido otras muchas assi di devocion como di moralidad. De manera que va queda el mas copioso que se aya visto."

As a proof of the extraordinary rarity of this book, no copy will be found in any sale Catalogue from Croft's to the present time, and among all the very rare books which have been lately imported from Spain, no copy of the Cancionero General in folio has appeared.

The present copy is in the finest possible condition, and in the original stamped binding. The following extract of the Title at the commencement of the Poems will give the best idea of its contents.

“ Cancionero General de muchas y diversas obras de todos o de los mas principales trovadores de espana assi antiguos como modernos : en devocion : en moralidad : en amores : en burlas romances : villancicos : canciones : letras de invenciones : motes : glosas preguntas : respuestas.” See also Bouterwek’s Spanish Litterature, Vol. I. p. 102, &c. 631.

This very fine set contains the two editions of the first volume and the Index, of which the only copy known to De Bure was in Gaignat's Library. It is splendidly bound in russia with joints, gilt leaves. fol. Upsaliæ, 1675, &c.

* * Rudbeckius, Arosicensis Suecus, Doctor et Professor, perpetuusque Curator Universitatis Upsalensis (1702), mirum in hoc opere testatus fuit ingenium, cum non solum singularum fere gentium origines ex Gothis ducat, sed etiam horum sacra, linguas, leges, litteras, aliaque, ita ut Sueciam vaginam gentium vere esse demonstraret. Quidquid de Altantica prædicant veteres, quidquid de cultu atque theologia gentili, singula apud Suecos quærit. Immo nihil fere præclari gestum est, quod non patriæ suæ tribuat. Hæc autem ut eo melius præstet, loca veterum scriptorum in sensus alienos detorquet, coniecturis nimium indulget, in etymis ludit et multa libertate aliarum gentium prærogativis derogat, haud semel de eo a viris doctis notatus, Bælio potissimum atque Tenzelio. Joh. vero Mollerus ita de opere Rudbeckiano sentit: "Vel stupidus omnino sit, inquit, vel malitiose impudens, oportet, quisquis, ex opere hoc præclaro, et doctrinæ omnigenæ atque rarioris plenissimo, Autoris non agnoscit ingenium perspicacissimum, eruditionem variam pariter atque solidam, lectionem multam, ac per omne scriptorum genus diffusam, et diligentiam tandem pertinacissimam, plurimis iam elogiis ab orbis literati proceribus merito decoratas. Unum hunc in corpore pulcherrimo nævum observes, quod Autor nimium patriæ indulgens amoris, hanc supra regiones orbis universi reliquas ubique, ἐνκαίρως ἀκαίρως, evehere allaboret, et, ut suae genti, quicquid ævo prisco præclari est gestum, asserat, in ceteras plerasque ac illarum prærogativas non raro sit injurius, argumentisque adversus istas depugnet, prima quidem interdum fronte speciosis, sed minus tamen solidis et iusto robore destitutis."—*Mueselii Bibl. A hault et puissant Seigneur Monseigneur Messire Francoys de Rochechouart Chevalier Seigneur de Champdemer, Conseiller et Chambellan ordinaire de tres hault très puissant et très exeellent prince Louis XII. de ce nom Roy de France; Son lieutenant general, et gouverneur EN SA DUCHÉ ET SEIGNEURIE DE GENNES, et Scheschal de Thouloze. Prologe de Alex. Sauvaige en l'ethiquette des temps.

François de Rochechouart descended from one of the most ancient families in the South of France, was made Governor of Genoa in the year 1508 by Lewis XII., and retained the Government till 1512, during which time this Manuscript must have been written. He was afterwards appointed to the Government of Rochelle by Francis I., was sent as Ambassador to Venice and Bruxelles, and died in 1530.

This Manuscript is written upon Vellum, and from the peculiar style of the Illuminations is very valuable. It contains three large and 120 small miniatures drawn in pen and ink, many of them heightened in gold, and finished in a most delicate manner. The first vignette represents the Author presenting this Work to his Patron Monseigneur Francois de Rochechouart. This was the Presentation Copy, as the Arms of the Family fascé nebulé d'argent et de gueules are painted at the bottom of this Vignette, and often repeated in the body of the Work. In fine preservation, red morocco, from the MacCarthy Library, 31l. 10s. - folio

- 4933 Portolano. A very elegant Portolano, consisting of Five Maps and written upon Vellum, by Gratiotus Benincasa, as appears by the following extract. "Gratiotus Benincasa Anconitanus composuit Romæ Anno Domini, MCCCCLXVII."

This Benincasa was one of the most celebrated Map compilers of the period, and is mentioned by Morelli in his Descrizione del Mappa Mondo di Fra Mauro. “Basta citare quel Portolano tanto ammirato dal Mittarelli che ha Gratosus Benincasa composuit Romæ e non Venetiis come per isbaglio venne asserito anno 1467 : certamente il Benincasa appresso dei Viaggiatori Veneziani quanto di singolare et di recente delinea, &c. 12l. 12s.

4934 Portolano. Another Portolano upon Vellum, written at Marseilles in the year 1613, as appears by the following inscription, Joannes Oliva fecit in Civitate Marsiliæ, 1613. It contains ten coloured Maps, with the names legibly written in the Portuguese Language, and appears to have been compiled with great accuracy, 10l. 10s.

fol. C. Ptolemæi Geographiam Arnoldus Buckinck e Germania Romæ Tabulis Æneis in Picturis formatam impressit SEMPITERNO INGENII ARTIFICIQUE MONUMENTO, MCCCCLXXVIII.

* * This is the most valuable edition of Ptolemy printed in the XVth Century, and contains the earliest specimens of Maps upon copper. The edition with the date of 1462 was printed at Bologna in 1482. The following extract will shew with what care this edition was executed.

“Qua in re ne librariorum inscitia Tuæ Sanctitatis aures offenderet. Domitius Calderinus Veronensis cui hujus emendationis provincia demandata fuerat, eam curam suscepit, asserens cum vetustissimo Græco manu Gemisti philosophi emendato Latinos codices se collocaturum. Magister vero Conradus Sweynheym a quo formandorum Romæ librorum ars primum profecta est, occasione hinc sumpta posteritati consulens animum primum ad hanc doctrinam capessandum applicuit. Subinde, mathematicis adhibitis viris, quemadmodum tabulis æneis imprimerentur, edocuit; triennioque in hac cura consumpto diem obiit. In cujus vigiliarum laborumque partem non inferiori ingenio ac studio Arnoldus Buckinck e Germania, vir apprime eruditus, ad imperfectum opus accedens, ne Domitii Conradique obitu eorum vigiliæ, emendationesque sine testimonio perirent, neve virorum eruditorum censuram fugerent, immensæ sublimitatis machinamenta examussim perfecit,” &c.

Inedited and very legibly written Manuscript upon paper, prepared for publication; from the Colonna and Guildford Libraries, 5l. 5s. - - - folio Hieronymus Magius the Author of this very curious and unpublished Treatise, was born at Anghiari in Tuscany, and was taken prisoner by the Turks at the Siege of Famagosta in 1571, and conducted as a slave to Constantinople. Sa consolation en ce triste etat fut le souvenir des choses qu'il avoit autrefois apprises; et comme il avoit beaucoup de memoire, il ne se crut pas incapable quoique destitué de toutes sortes de Livres d'en composer qui fussent remplis de citations. Ce fut a quoi il employoit une bonne partie de la nuit etant obligé de travailler pendant le jour comme le plus vil esclave.

It was then that he wrote his work de Tintinnabulis. The present Tract dedicated Aloysio Ardinghello Forosempronii Episcopo et Perusiæ Prolegato, and dated from Pisa 1552, is also mentioned by Bayle as unpublished.
